Collins Appoints Lara Moore as Chief Financial Officer

Wilsonville, OR: Collins announced today that Lara Moore, will become Chief Financial Officer for the company.

Lara has 20 years of experience in business affairs in higher education including 10 years as the CFO/Vice President for Finance & Administration at Eastern Oregon University. Lara's strong leadership was critical to creating dynamic financial systems used to build and monitor the fiscal health of the university. Additionally, Lara was responsible for the oversight of facilities and planning, information technology, human resources, and safety and security. This past year, Lara held a dual role serving as CFO and Interim Co-President for Internal Affairs. Her leadership was instrumental in maintaining the momentum of numerous initiatives aligned with the university's strategic plan.

"Having worked with Lara in the past, I know her talent and work ethic firsthand," stated Tom Insko, President & CEO. "She is collaborative, driven, and ready to take on this new opportunity. I look forward to having her expertise on my leadership team again."

Lara received her MBA from Marylhurst University.
